DEBTORS' THIRD MOTION FOR AN ORDER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1452 AND RULES 9006 AND 9027 OF THE
FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE EXTENDING PERIOD WITHIN WHICH DEBTORS MAY REMOVE ACTIONS

TO: THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

By their motion, Magnesium Corporation of America ("Magcorp") and Renco Metals, Inc. ("Metals," and together with Magcorp, the "Debtors") hereby move for the entry of an order (the "Proposed Order"), a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A," pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1452 and Rules 9006 and 9027 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rule(s)"), further extending the period within which the Debtors may remove actions and in support thereof, respectfully represent as follows:

Background

1. On August 2, 2001 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed with the Clerk of this Court a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code").
2. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors continue in the possession of their property and in the operation and management of their businesses as debtors in possession, pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.
3. On August 14, 2001, the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee") in these chapter 11 cases. No trustee or examiner has been requested or appointed in these chapter 11 cases.
4. Magcorp is a wholly owned subsidiary of Metals, a holding company which is itself wholly owned by The Renco Group, Inc. ("Group"). Magcorp is engaged in the production and sale of magnesium and magnesium alloys for customers throughout the world. Magcorp is the second largest producer of pure magnesium and magnesium alloys outside the Commonwealth of Independent States and People's Republic of China and the largest single producer of magnesium in the United States. In addition, due to the recent rise in energy prices in the western United States, Magcorp has been generating additional revenues from the generation and sale of power.

Procedural Background

5. By Motion dated October 29, 2001 (the "First Extension Motion"), the Debtors requested an order, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1452 and Bankruptcy Rules 9006 and 9027, extending the Removal Period (as defined below) by approximately ninety (90) days. By Order dated November 15, 2001 (the "November Order"), this Court granted the First Extension Motion and extended the Removal Period to the latest to occur of (a) January 22, 2002 or (b) the day which is thirty (30) days after entry of an order terminating the automatic stay with respect to the particular Prepetition Action (as defined below) sought to be removed.

6. By motion dated January 10, 2002 (the "Second Extension Motion"), the Debtor requested a further order extending the renewal period for approximately ninety (90) days. By order dated January 24, 2002 (the "January Order"), this Court granted the Second Extension Motion and extended the Removal Period to the latest to occur of (a) April 22, 2002 or (b) the day which is thirty (30) days after entry of an order terminating the automatic stay with respect to the particular Prepetition Action sought to be removed.

Jurisdiction and Venue

7. The Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Referral of Cases to Bankruptcy Judges of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Ward, Acting C.J.), dated July 10, 1984. The statutory predicate for relief sought herein is 28 U.S.C. § 1452 and Rules 9006 and 9027 of the Bankruptcy Rules. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(O). Venue of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases and the Motion is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

8. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were party to approximately twenty civil actions pending in various forums (collectively, the "Prepetition Actions"). Pursuant to the January Order, the time within which the Debtors may file a notice of removal with respect to the Prepetition Actions (the "Removal Period") is scheduled to expire on the latest to occur of (a) April 22, 2002 or (b) the day which is thirty (30) days after entry for an order terminating the automatic stay with respect to the particular Prepetition Action sought to be removed. For the reasons cited herein, the Debtors seek the entry of an order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006, extending the Removal Period for a period of ninety (90) days. Thus, the Debtors propose that the time by which they may file notices of removal in the bankruptcy court with respect to Prepetition Actions be extended to the latest to occur of (a) July 22, 2002 or (b) the day which is thirty (30) days after entry of an order terminating the automatic stay with respect to the particular Prepetition Action sought to be removed.

Basis of Relief Requested

9. The Debtors are parties to several Prepetition Actions. In a number of those actions, the Debtors have filed counterclaims and crossclaims. The determination as to whether to seek to remove any particular Prepetition Action requires the evaluation of a number of legal and factual issues. Since the Petition Date, however, the Debtors have been required to devote their time and resources to numerous other matters of immediate import, including negotiating post-petition debtor in possession financing, stabilizing their business operations, solidifying relationships with vendors, customers and critical employees, preparing their schedules and statements, and analyzing alternative exit strategies from chapter 11.

10. After much analysis, the Debtors determined that a plan of reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code would be the Debtors' best alternative for successfully emerging from chapter 11. As a result on February 14, 2002, the Debtors filed their Joint Plan of Reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and their proposed Disclosure Statement for the Debtors' Joint Plan of Reorganization. On February 28, 2002, the Debtors filed their First Amended Plan of Reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Plan") and related disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"). After further analysis, the Debtors have decided not prosecute the Disclosure Statement or the Plan at this stage and are in the process of examining other opinions, including, but not limited to, the sale of substantially all of the Debtors' assets.

11. In addition, the Debtors' management and professionals has devoted substantial resources maintaining constant and regular communication with the Creditors' Committee and its professionals on a myriad of issues that will impact the Debtors' restructuring efforts. The Debtors' communication efforts have resulted in a consensus on several key issues. The Debtors and the Creditors' Committee have not as of yet discussed all pending litigation involving the Debtors.

12. Because the Debtors necessarily have been required to focus their attention on other matters, additional time is needed to analyze each of the Prepetition Actions and make appropriate determinations concerning possible removal. Without an extension, the Debtors would be forced to make removal decisions that could be detrimental to the Debtors, their estates and their creditors. Accordingly, an extension of the time period with which the Debtors may determine which Prepetition Actions, if any, should be removed is warranted.

13. Bankruptcy Rule 9027 and 28 U.S.C. § 1452 govern the removal of pending civil actions. Specifically, section 1452 of title 28 of the United States Code provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

- (a) A party may remove any claim or cause of action in a civil action other than a proceeding before the United States Tax Court or a civil action by a governmental unit to enforce such governmental unit's police or regulatory power, to the district court for the district where such civil action is pending, if such district court has jurisdiction of such claim or cause of action under Section 1334 of this title.

28 U.S.C. § 1452. Further, Bankruptcy Rule 9027(a)(2) provides, in pertinent part as follows:

If the claim or cause of action in a civil action is pending when a case under the Code is commenced, a notice of removal may be filed only within the longest of (A) 90 days after the order for relief in the case under the Code, (B) 30 days after entry of an order terminating a stay, if the claim or cause of action in a civil action has been stayed under § 362 of the Code, or (C) 30 days after a trustee qualifies in a chapter 11 reorganization case but not later than 180 days after the order for relief.

FED. R. BANKR. PROC. 9027(a)(2). Accordingly, the Debtors' time to remove Prepetition Actions that are not subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code would have expired on October 31, 2001. Pursuant to the November Order, the time to remove Prepetition Actions that are not subject to the automatic stay has been extended to April 22, 2002.

14. Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b) permits the extension of certain time periods, including the Removal Period. Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b)(1) provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

[W]hen an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified period by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion . . . with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if the request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order

Fed. R. Bankr. 9006(b)(1). Thus, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b)(1), this Court is authorized to grant the relief requested herein and further extend the Removal Period without notice or motion, if the Debtors show "cause" and the request is made prior to the expiration of the Removal Period. 10 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶9027.05[1]. 9027-10 (Lawrence P. King, et al. eds 15th ed rev. 1996)("Subdivisions (b) and (c) of Rule 9006 permit the periods of Rule 9027(a)(2) to be extended or reduced."); see also Jandous Elec. Constr. Corp. v. City of New York (In re Jandous Elec. Constr. Corp.), 106 B.R. 48, 50 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (period in which to file motion to remove may be expanded pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006); Pacor, Inc. v. Higgins, 743 F.2d 984, 996 n.17 (3d Cir. 1984) (under Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b), "it is clear that the court may grant such an extension [of time to remove]").

Debtors have Shown Cause for the Relief Requested

15. "Cause shown" has been defined as a liberal standard and an application for an extension of time should be granted, "as long as the moving party has not been guilty of negligence or bad faith and the privilege of extension has not been abused" 10 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 9006, 9006-12.

16. The Debtors submit that cause exists to grant the relief requested. The extension sought will afford the Debtors the additional time needed to make informed decisions concerning removal of each Prepetition Action, ensuring that the Debtors do not forfeit valuable rights. In addition, if, and when, a Prepetition Action is removed, any party to that action may thereafter seek to have it remanded in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1452. Therefore, the requested extension of the time period during which the Prepetition Actions may be removed will not prejudice the rights of any other parties.

Notice

17. Notice of this Motion has been served on (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, 33 Whitehall Street, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10004, Attn: Brian S. Masumoto Esq., (ii) Chapman and Cutler, co-counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, 111 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois 60603, Attn: James E. Spiotto, Esq., (iii) Luskin, Stern & Eisler LLP, co-counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, 330 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10017, Attn: Lori Lapin Jones, Esq., (iv) the non-debtor parties to the Prepetition Action, (v) Otterbourg, Steindler, Houston & Rosen, P.C., Attorneys for Congress Financial Corporation, 230 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10169, Attn: Jonathan N. Helfat, Esq., and (vi) all entities that have filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors submit that given the nature of the relief requested herein, no other or further notice need be given.

18. Inasmuch as this Motion presents no novel issue of law which requires consideration of any authority other than that contained herein, the Debtors request the Court to waive and dispense with the requirement set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(b) that a motion be accompanied by a memorandum of law.

19. Other than the First and Second Extension Motions and the January and November Orders described above, no motion for similar relief has been made or granted by this Court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that this Court enter the Proposed Order (i) extending the Removal Period to the latest to occur of (a) July 22, 2002 or (b) the day which is thirty (30) days after entry of an order terminating the automatic stay with respect to the particular Prepetition Action sought to be removed, and (ii) granting such other and further relief as is just and proper.
